New for Academic Year 2013-14!

Lower rates for graduate students — The APRs on new Smart Option Student Loans can be lower than the APR on the PLUS Loan for Graduate Students.1,7

Graduated Repayment Period® — The Smart Option Student Loan is the only private student loan featuring a Graduated Repayment Period,10 providing budget flexibility for graduating students. Students who graduate and maintain their Sallie Mae loans in good standing can request to make 12 interest-only payments instead of full principal and interest payments after their separation period.

1 Interest rates for the Fixed and Deferred Repayment Options are higher than for loans with the Interest Repayment Option. Variable interest rates may increase after consummation. Interest is charged while in school and during the 6-month separation period. Any interest that remains unpaid when the borrower enters full repayment will be added to their loan balance. Graduate student pricing is available on new Sallie Mae Smart Option Student Loans made to graduate students, with applications submitted April 1, 2013 or later. Graduate student pricing on the Smart Option Student Loan is limited to students enrolling in a Master's/Doctorate level degree program. Graduate Certificate/Continuing Education course work is not eligible for graduate student pricing.

2 Recurring payment must be successfully deducted from designated account for rate reduction to apply. Benefit suspended during forbearances and certain deferments.

8 Explore federal loans and compare to ensure you understand the terms and features. Smart Option Student Loans with variable rates can go up after consummation and do not have many of the repayment alternatives like Income-Based Repayment, Extended Repayment, and certain types of deferments that are available with federal loans. Federal loans generally have origination fees.

9 Available for loans that first disburse on or after 7/1/13 to finance academic periods that begin on or after 7/1/13 at a degree-granting institution. Graduated Repayment Period (GRP) requires interest payments for the initial 12-month period of repayment when you would normally begin making full principal and interest payments (which typically begins six months after graduation) or during the 12-month period after your request is granted, whichever is later. At the time you request GRP, you must have graduated with no interruption in enrollment, be current on payments, and not have been late on payments in this or any other Sallie Mae serviced loans. You may request GRP only during the two billing cycles immediately preceding and the two billing cycles immediately after your loan would normally begin requiring full principal and interest payments. GRP does not extend the term of the loan. If you are approved for GRP your principal and interest payments will be higher than if GRP did not apply, and your total loan cost will increase.

10 Based on a 2/25/13 review of competitors loan programs and repayment features.

11 To qualify, borrower must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident, and meet the underwriting requirements when the release request is processed.
